

Evening Star.

TUESDAY.....June 1, 1875.

Weather Probabilities To-day.
OFFICE OF CIGAR SIGNAL OFFICES.

WASHINGTON, June 1, 1875.

During the rest of Tuesday in the Southern Atlantic states, there will be a strong north wind, rising, followed by falling barometer, stationary temperature, increasing cloudiness and possibly rain Tuesday night.

LOCAL NEWS.

Condensed Local.

Why not get the best at once? Then go to Thompson's.

The street lamps will be lighted to-night at 7.30 p.m., and extinguished at 2.45 a.m.

The attention of the Tabernacle meetings yesterday and last night was very large.

The residents along the line of south F street are very anxious to see the new street sweepers.

The Y. M. C. A. have begun their annual outdoor religious exercises at the junction of Pennsylvania avenue and 14th street north west.

The second base ball contest between the Washington and New Haven clubs took place at the Olympic grounds yesterday, and the New Havens won by a score of 9 to 3.

If you want to have a good time this evening go to the first grand picnic of Kai-el-Koza Club of New Haven, or Seven Wise Men, at 4 p.m. at the park.

Mr. Joseph E. Stewart, yesterday through his attorney, George W. Paschal, entered a suit against Samuel G. Canell to recover $1,000 damages for being delayed for services rendered in attempting to defend him.

Found Master Einstein and his force yesterday captured 31 canines. Up to Friday last, they had caught 250 dogs, 20 of which have been killed and the remainder released.

Mr. W. A. Hutchinson, secretary of the International Typographical Union, and Mr. McEvoy, accompanied by Mr. L. B. Williams, editor of "The Liberator," were yesterday, en route for Boston, where the annual session will be held on Monday next.

The advertising agency of Max Cohen recently established on F street will be a great attraction to the advertising men of Washington, desirous of advertising throughout the country. Mr. Cohen can give rates of all leading papers.

A crew of corner linters knocked down a man named M. Johnson in Judiciary square last night as he was passing through. Officers Madigan and Roderick gave them a chase, but they escaped for the time being.

They are known and will yet get their desert.

United States Marshal, Robert M. Wallace, of Charleston, S. C., passed through the city yesterday, on his way to the Reform School in Prince George's County, Md., with a colored youth named Joseph Alexander, whom he proposes to place in that institution.

James McAllister, an old citizen of East Washington, living dangerous life, ill.

Mr. McAllister is probably dead in the navy yard, having been consequently employed for 62 years, and is now over 80 years of age. He is the father of Capt. Donald McAllister.

Messrs. Young & Middleton, auctioneers, real estate and insurance agents, will sell to-morrow afternoon some of the beautiful cottage sites on the Whitney property adjoining Soldier's Home Park. A rare opportunity for profitable investment. For terms of sale, see advertisement in another column.

REAL ESTATE SALES.—Wash.—B. Williams, auctioneer, sold yesterday afternoon, the whole of square 730, between 1st and 1st of streets east and F and G streets north containing 206,811 feet of ground, to John Sherman, Jr., for Alfred M. Hoyt, of New York, for $60,000. Part of lot 1, of 4th and 7th, in square 309, on L, between 9th and 10th, northwest, with improvements, consisting of a two-story frame and frame building, to John W. Dyer for $30,000.

Landmarks sold, yesterday afternoon, lot 57, in square 304, to C. H. Bowell, at 32 cents per square foot; lot 86, to R. G. Campbell, at 53 cents per foot; part of lot 85, to same at 40 cents per foot; lots 89, 90, 91, 92, 93 and 94, to B. C. Campbell, at 32 cents per foot; part of lot 14, to W. W. Hayley, at 75 cents per foot; part of lot in square 303, to Captain Williams, at 67 cents per foot.

Messrs. Zimmerman & Co., auctioneers, sold Square 304, to J. M. Yzaguirre, trustee, parts of lots 16, 17 and 18, Hill's subdivision of square 119, improved by two small frames, for $335 cash; also, for same trustee, lot 18, block 1, Wilson street, small frame house, for $1,000 cash, on Sunday, for Morrison and Fiske, trustees, farm near Uniontown, 143 acres, more or less, for $5,300; and I acre, near same tract, for $75.

RAILROAD DAMAGE CASE.—Today in the Circuit Court of Appeals, Hammonds, the case of L. A. Bell against the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company was taken up.

Messrs. Cook, Moore and Newman for the plaintiff, and Messrs. Cox and R. S. Smith for defendants. It is alleged that damages allegedly to have been sustained on the 5th of July, 1872, by the killing of Bell's infant child by a locomotive running over it. It is claimed that Mrs. Bell was in an H street car, and that the driver, the engineer, and defendant, the train approached so near the street car the passengers jumped out, and Mrs. Bell, with her infant, followed them, and the latter fell under the wheels of the engine. Damages to the amount of $20,000 are claimed.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE FOR SPECIAL IMPROVEMENT TAXES.—Under the several acts of Congress, and the legislative assembly of the District of Columbia, Mr. P. Warner, real estate broker and auctioneer, sold yesterday, at the Columbia buildings, Washington, Mr. Coldwell, salesman, 97 pieces of real estate, especially improvement tax, which brought the amount of $1,000, interest and expenses of sale, and were bought principally by the parties holding the certificates. Many persons paid their taxes before the commencement of the sale, and the commissioners were enabled from selling a number of pieces of property advertised.

THE CITIZENS' RELIEF COMMITTEE.

THEIR WORK THE PAST WINTER.

Yesterday, Mr. Wm. Stickney, President of the Citizens' Relief Commission, submitted his report to the Commissioners of the District. It states that the labor of the citizens, during the month of December, 1874, and terminated April 1, 1875, amounted $10,000, and was substantially the same as pursued in previous years. Personal application for relief was made at the rooms of the commissioners, and was granted, and admitted to probate and record.

Mr. Elliott then offered a prayer, commenting with the Lord's prayer, in which he asked God to sojourn and dispose the hearts of all

Christians to do their duty.

He partially administered justice to the punishment of wickedness and vice, and to the maintenance of truth, religion and virtue.

For the benefit of the poor, all that any man may be able to do, and set aside for their white dresses, and the red act, which seemed to predominate in the bouquets, many having seemingly been formed to show these colors. Now and then, however, the red and white were to be seen.

The stand was trimmed with the national colors, and some few of the carriages on the ground had small flags displayed on them.

THE EXERCISES.

To-day, Smith agt. Thompson; decision for distribution of about 100,000 copies of the National Life Insurance.

Mr. Joseph E. Stewart, yesterday through his attorney, George W. Paschal, entered a suit against Samuel G. Canell to recover $1,000 damages for being delayed for services rendered in attempting to defend him.

Found Master Einstein and his force yesterday captured 31 canines. Up to Friday last, they had caught 250 dogs, 20 of which have been killed and the remainder released.

Mr. W. A. Hutchinson, secretary of the International Typographical Union, and Mr. McEvoy, accompanied by Mr. L. B. Williams, editor of "The Liberator," were yesterday, en route for Boston, where the annual session will be held on Monday next.

The advertising agency of Max Cohen recently established on F street will be a great attraction to the advertising men of Washington, desirous of advertising throughout the country.

Officers Madigan and Roderick gave them a chase, but they escaped for the time being.

They are known and will yet get their desert.

United States Marshal, Robert M. Wallace, of Charleston, S. C., passed through the city yesterday, on his way to the Reform School in Prince George's County, Md., with a colored youth named Joseph Alexander, whom he proposes to place in that institution.

James McAllister, an old citizen of East Washington, living dangerous life, ill.

Mr. McAllister is probably dead in the navy yard, having been consequently employed for 62 years, and is now over 80 years of age. He is the father of Capt. Donald McAllister.

Messrs. Young & Middleton, auctioneers, real estate and insurance agents, will sell to-morrow afternoon some of the beautiful cottage sites on the Whitney property adjoining Soldier's Home Park. A rare opportunity for profitable investment. For terms of sale, see advertisement in another column.

REAL ESTATE SALES.—Wash.—B. Williams, auctioneer, sold yesterday afternoon, the whole of square 730, between 1st and 1st of streets east and F and G streets north containing 206,811 feet of ground, to John Sherman, Jr., for Alfred M. Hoyt, of New York, for $60,000. Part of lot 1, of 4th and 7th, in square 309, on L, between 9th and 10th, northwest, with improvements, consisting of a two-story frame and frame building, to John W. Dyer for $30,000.

Landmarks sold, yesterday afternoon, lot 57, in square 304, to C. H. Bowell, at 32 cents per square foot; lot 86, to R. G. Campbell, at 53 cents per foot; part of lot 85, to same at 40 cents per foot; lots 89, 90, 91, 92, 93 and 94, to B. C. Campbell, at 32 cents per foot; part of lot 14, to W. W. Hayley, at 75 cents per foot; part of lot in square 303, to Captain Williams, at 67 cents per foot.

Messrs. Zimmerman & Co., auctioneers, sold Square 304, to J. M. Yzaguirre, trustee, parts of lots 16, 17 and 18, Hill's subdivision of square 119, improved by two small frames, for $335 cash; also, for same trustee, lot 18, block 1, Wilson street, small frame house, for $1,000 cash, on Sunday, for Morrison and Fiske, trustees, farm near Uniontown, 143 acres, more or less, for $5,300; and I acre, near same tract, for $75.

RAILROAD DAMAGE CASE.—Today in the Circuit Court of Appeals, Hammonds, the case of L. A. Bell against the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company was taken up.

Messrs. Cook, Moore and Newman for the plaintiff, and Messrs. Cox and R. S. Smith for defendants. It is alleged that damages allegedly to have been sustained on the 5th of July, 1872, by the killing of Bell's infant child by a locomotive running over it. It is claimed that Mrs. Bell was in an H street car, and that the driver, the engineer, and defendant, the train approached so near the street car the passengers jumped out, and Mrs. Bell, with her infant, followed them, and the latter fell under the wheels of the engine. Damages to the amount of $20,000 are claimed.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE FOR SPECIAL IMPROVEMENT TAXES.—Under the several acts of Congress, and the legislative assembly of the District of Columbia, Mr. P. Warner, real estate broker and auctioneer, sold yesterday, at the Columbia buildings, Washington, Mr. Coldwell, salesman, 97 pieces of real estate, especially improvement tax, which brought the amount of $1,000, interest and expenses of sale, and were bought principally by the parties holding the certificates. Many persons paid their taxes before the commencement of the sale, and the commissioners were enabled from selling a number of pieces of property advertised.

THE CITIZENS' RELIEF COMMITTEE.

THEIR WORK THE PAST WINTER.

Yesterday, Mr. Wm. Stickney, President of the Citizens' Relief Commission, submitted his report to the Commissioners of the District. It states that the labor of the citizens, during the month of December, 1874, and terminated April 1, 1875, amounted $10,000, and was substantially the same as pursued in previous years. Personal application for relief was made at the rooms of the commissioners, and was granted, and admitted to probate and record.

Mr. Elliott then offered a prayer, commenting with the Lord's prayer, in which he asked God to sojourn and dispose the hearts of all

Christians to do their duty.

He partially administered justice to the punishment of wickedness and vice,

and to the maintenance of truth, religion and virtue.

For the benefit of the poor, all that any man

may be able to do, and set aside for their white dresses, and the red act, which seemed to predominate in the bouquets, many having seemingly been formed to show these colors. Now and then, however, the red and white were to be seen.

The stand was trimmed with the national colors, and some few of the carriages on the ground had small flags displayed on them.

THE EXERCISES.

To-day, Smith agt. Thompson; decision for distribution of about 100,000 copies of the National Life Insurance.

Mr. Joseph E. Stewart, yesterday through his attorney, George W. Paschal, entered a suit against Samuel G. Canell to recover $1,000 damages for being delayed for services rendered in attempting to defend him.

Found Master Einstein and his force yesterday captured 31 canines. Up to Friday last, they had caught 250 dogs, 20 of which have been killed and the remainder released.

Mr. W. A. Hutchinson, secretary of the International Typographical Union, and Mr. McEvoy, accompanied by Mr. L. B. Williams, editor of "The Liberator," were yesterday, en route for Boston, where the annual session will be held on Monday next.

The advertising agency of Max Cohen recently established on F street will be a great attraction to the advertising men of Washington, desirous of advertising throughout the country.

Officers Madigan and Roderick gave them a chase, but they escaped for the time being.

They are known and will yet get their desert.

United States Marshal, Robert M. Wallace, of Charleston, S. C., passed through the city yesterday, on his way to the Reform School in Prince George's County, Md., with a colored youth named Joseph Alexander, whom he proposes to place in that institution.

James McAllister, an old citizen of East Washington, living dangerous life, ill.

Mr. McAllister is probably dead in the navy yard, having been consequently employed for 62 years, and is now over 80 years of age. He is the father of Capt. Donald McAllister.

Messrs. Young & Middleton, auctioneers, real estate and insurance agents, will sell to-morrow afternoon some of the beautiful cottage sites on the Whitney property adjoining Soldier's Home Park. A rare opportunity for profitable investment. For terms of sale, see advertisement in another column.

REAL ESTATE SALES.—Wash.—B. Williams, auctioneer, sold yesterday afternoon, the whole of square 730, between 1st and 1st of streets east and F and G streets north containing 206,811 feet of ground, to John Sherman, Jr., for Alfred M. Hoyt, of New York, for $60,000. Part of lot 1, of 4th and 7th, in square 309, on L, between 9th and 10th, northwest, with improvements, consisting of a two-story frame and frame building, to John W. Dyer for $30,000.

Landmarks sold, yesterday afternoon, lot 57, in square 304, to C. H. Bowell, at 32 cents per square foot; lot 86, to R. G. Campbell, at 53 cents per foot; part of lot 85, to same at 40 cents per foot; lots 89, 90, 91, 92, 93 and 94, to B. C. Campbell, at 32 cents per foot; and pamphlet apply to A. PRATT & CO., corner 9th and D streets northwest.

THE EXERCISES.

To-day, Smith agt. Thompson; decision for distribution of about 100,000 copies of the National Life Insurance.

Mr. Joseph E. Stewart, yesterday through his attorney, George W. Paschal, entered a suit against Samuel G. Canell to recover $1,000 damages for being delayed for services rendered in attempting to defend him.

Found Master Einstein and his force yesterday captured 31 canines. Up to Friday last, they had caught 250 dogs, 20 of which have been killed and the remainder released.

Mr. W. A. Hutchinson, secretary of the International Typographical Union, and Mr. McEvoy, accompanied by Mr. L. B. Williams, editor of "The Liberator," were yesterday, en route for Boston, where the annual session will be held on Monday next.

The advertising agency of Max Cohen recently established on F street will be a great attraction to the advertising men of Washington, desirous of advertising throughout the country.

Officers Madigan and Roderick gave them a chase, but they escaped for the time being.

They are known and will yet get their desert.

United States Marshal, Robert M. Wallace, of Charleston, S. C., passed through the city yesterday, on his way to the Reform School in Prince George's County, Md., with a colored youth named Joseph Alexander, whom he proposes to place in that institution.

James McAllister, an old citizen of East Washington, living dangerous life, ill.

Mr. McAllister is probably dead in the navy yard, having been consequently employed for 62 years, and is now over 80 years of age. He is the father of Capt. Donald McAllister.

Messrs. Young & Middleton, auctioneers, real estate and insurance agents, will sell to-morrow afternoon some of the beautiful cottage sites on the Whitney property adjoining Soldier's Home Park. A rare opportunity for profitable investment. For terms of sale, see advertisement in another column.

REAL ESTATE SALES.—Wash.—B. Williams, auctioneer, sold yesterday afternoon, the whole of square 730, between 1st and 1st of streets east and F and G streets north containing 206,811 feet of ground, to John Sherman, Jr., for Alfred M. Hoyt, of New York, for $60,000. Part of lot 1, of 4th and 7th, in square 309, on L, between 9th and 10th, northwest, with improvements, consisting of a two-story frame and frame building, to John W. Dyer for $30,000.